Technical Information

DANDY is the icon of the traditional design sofa thought for the outdoors: a revolutionary seating system that contains all the functions of an indoor textile sofa, so intimate and familiar, in a completely total outdoor version. RODA is now a reference brand in the luxury outdoor furniture thanks to the design versatility, the technological innovation of the processes and to the highest quality of the materials used, the essential but fundamental basis for the realization of such unique and performing collections. DANDY outdoor sofas are characterized by the lightness of the structure and the formal rigor, the leitmotif of all the compositional possibilities offered by this modular system.
